

(PRE-MEMOIR WORKSHOP) “Memory & Storytelling: Learning To Trust The Voice We’ve Been Taught To Distrust”

Who deserves to be remembered? If you already have an answer, we'll show you how to bring them to life on the page.

"Memory & Storytelling: Learning to Trust the Voice We've Been Taught to Distrust" is a PRE-MEMOIR workshop designed to help you organize and honor your memories—before you even think about formatting your book.

You have a story. A truth. A voice. But you've been taught to suppress it—to be polite, respectable, and avoid making waves. So, you've chosen silence.

This workshop is for you if:

- ◆ You're spiritually intuitive but shrink when you don't see your lived experiences reflected in the world.
- ◆ You're ready to own your truth and speak up—even in spaces where you're not the majority.

It's time to remember it.

It's time to make waves and then ride it.

It's time to tell it.

Runtime: 1.5 hours

Cost: $350 (webinar, plus 45-minute private coaching session with instructor)
